DOLLARS AND SENSE

As usual, I was traveling last weekend – lots of meetings and teaching assignments. As most of you know, my neighbor and friend, Ruth Brady, always said that if I was traveling, the weather would be really different – boy was she correct!

It rained on the way down but God saved a special event on my way home yesterday – really cold temperatures (low 20's) and that four letter word, SNOW!

So I'm tooling along in the heavy snow flurries on the Taconic and what do I see? My nemesis animals – deer! Not just a couple but a herd – now along with all the flying I did, I also drove to Pennsylvania for about six months using the Taconic.

During that time the deer and I became dear friends. Most of the herd would be in the middle section but there would always be one on the verge on my side. The one on my side would tell the others that I was coming and then the herd would really move. They are absolutely beautiful animals and God has given them the ability of both speed and leaping high.

I would slow way, way down and they would show me how fast and high they could go. In the meantime, I would be praying and asking God to not have them land on my rental car! Which they didn't! I thanked God all the way home. As the trips continued, I would start praying as soon as I got onto the Taconic from either end.

Yesterday was no different – the deer are younger, the snow although dangerous was beautiful and God protected me again. Sometimes, I think God is driving – other times I think God is sleeping in the passenger seat. Did I remember to thank Him? Definitely!

We all know, God is good, and with us – All the time!

CHURCH HAPPENINGS

Community Bible Study

The Community Bible Study that meets on Thursday evenings from 7:00 – 8:00 p.m. in Fellowship Hall is off to a good start. We are looking at the Gospel of Matthew, asking especially what it tells us about the Kingdom of Heaven. But we are always excited to have new people stop by, with different ideas and/or questions. Consider trying our group for yourself – this approach to Scripture, by talking it out in a group setting, may be something you would enjoy.

For information, contact Sally at slangendorf@verizon.net.

Saturday Evening Service

We continue to offer a contemporary service of Holy Eucharist on Saturday evening, using a newer version of the Bible and today's music from Christian artists of today. Invite your friends and join us for an evening of special worship.
