Church of Our Saviour
Lebanon Springs, NY

Volume 2005 Issue V

December 11, 2005

The mission of the Church of Our Saviour is to spread the Gospel and inspire a renewal and commitment to living the Christian life through the love of Jesus Christ as expressed by His People.

Winter Frosting!

Although we know snow comes with winter, our first snowfall is always a surprise! Advent is like a first snowfall -- our Lord's surprise for us -- we know He is coming but on Christmas Eve, as we sing the carols and close with Silent Night, we truly feel His presence among us. May everyone feel the love, wonder and joy of His coming this Christmas!

CHRISTMAS GREETINGS:

The joy of a child's delight or the joy of an unexpected gift, these are the joys Our Lord has in store for all of us. Each year at this time we expect the unexpected.

Our God has already given us the greatest gift -- His Blessed Son, Jesus. May we all relive the child's delight we experienced when we first received this unexpected gift into our hearts.

A Blessed Christmas to all in His most glorious Name.

Rev. Canon & Mrs. Clinton G. Dugger

PRAYER LIST

As Christians we use prayer to communicate to God regarding our concerns, hurts and thanksgivings. The Bible says where two or three are gathered together the Lord is in their midst. Group prayer is just that, bringing many voices to the Lord.

Would you like to have prayer given by the group for yourself or someone else? You may call (518-794-7538) or write Mary Young a note, with the person's name you would like to have on the prayer list. Please include your name so that she can get back with you every thirty days or so to check on the person you added.

Some prayers are needed for a long time, some a short time, plus it is nice to know how the people we pray for are doing, one of the best thanksgiving prayers is to thank God for answered prayer.

Got something you would like to have in Gideon's Trumpet? Want to share with your Brothers and Sisters in Christ? We encourage YOUR participation in the Trumpet and solicit your contributions which can be left in the Church Office; or mailed to Susan Darcy, 7 Hutchinson Lane Lenox, MA 01240-2217 or sent by email to:

Susan@darcy-systems.com.

I'm looking forward to your suggestions and contributions!

Parishioners Corner

Starting with our first Trumpet in 2006, there will be a new series -- Spotlight on Parishioners! Have an unusual hobby? Are you doing something different? Volunteer to be interviewed! But watch next issue for an article on our Parishioner, Birgitta Peterson.

The Nativity

A scene so peaceful in the night,
 The starry sky is soft and bright,
 A stream of light shines from a Star,
 To guide the Wise Men from afar.
 A stable's where the Christ Child lay,
 Asleep so precious on the hay.
 Mary and Joseph are close by,
 With angels singing from on high.
 The shepherds kneel down to adore
 The Babe Who comes to bless the poor.
 A King has gold to give this day,
 A drummer boy, a song to play.

A VERY SPECIAL LETTER TO ALL

As you well know, we are getting closer to my birthday. Every year there is a celebration in my honor and I think that this year the celebration will be repeated.

During this time there are many people shopping for gifts, there are many radio announcements, TV commercials, and in every part of the world everyone is talking that my birthday is getting closer and closer.

It is really very nice to know, that at least once a year, some people think of me.

As you know, the celebration of my birthday began many years ago.

At first people seemed to understand and be thankful of all that I did for them, but in these times, no one seems to know the reason for the celebration.

Family and friends get together and have a lot of fun, but they don't know the meaning of the celebration. I remember that last year there was a great feast in my honor. The dinner table was full of delicious foods, pastries, fruits, assorted nuts and chocolates. The decorations were exquisite and there were many, many beautifully wrapped gifts.

But, do you want to know something? I wasn't invited.

I was the guest of honor and they didn't remember to send me an invitation.

The party was for me, but when that great day came, I was left outside, they closed the door in my face ... and I wanted to be with them and share their table.

In truth, that didn't surprise me because in the last few years all close their doors to me. Since I wasn't invited, I decided to enter the party without making any noise. I went in and stood in a corner.

They were all drinking; there were some who were drunk and telling jokes and laughing at everything. They were having a grand time. To top it all, this big fat man all dressed in red wearing a long white beard entered the room yelling Ho-Ho-Ho! He seemed drunk. He sat on the sofa and all the children ran to him, saying: "Santa Claus, Santa Claus" as if the party were in his honor!

At midnight all the people began to hug each other; I extended my arms waiting for someone to hug me and do you know no-one hugged me.

Suddenly they all began to share gifts. They opened them one by one with great expectation. When all had been opened, I looked to see if, maybe, there was one for me. What would you feel if on your birthday everybody shared gifts and you did not get one?

I then understood that I was unwanted at that party and quietly left.

Every year it gets worse. People only remember the gifts, the parties, to eat and drink, and nobody remembers me.

I would like this Christmas that you allow me to enter into your life.

I would like that you recognize the fact that almost two thousand years ago I came to this world to give my life for you, on the cross, to save you.

Today, I only want that you believe this with all your heart.

I want to share something with you. As many didn't invite me to their party, I will have my own celebration, a grandiose party that no one has ever imagined, a spectacular party. I'm still making the final arrangements.

Today I am sending out many invitations and there is an invitation for you. I want to know if you wish to attend and I will make a reservation for you and write your name with golden letters, in my great guest book.

Only those on the guest list will be invited to the party.

Those who don't answer the invite, will be left outside. Be prepared because when all is ready you will be part of my great party.

See you soon. I Love you! Jesus

The Living Bible

T-shirt with holes in it, jeans, and no shoes. This was literally his wardrobe for his entire four years of college. He is brilliant. Kind of esoteric and very, very bright. He became a Christian while attending college. Across the street from the campus is a well-dressed, very conservative church. They want to develop a ministry to the students but are not sure how to go about it.

One day Bill decides to go there. He walks wild hair. The service has already started for a seat. The church is completely packed are really looking a bit uncomfortable, but closer and closer to the pulpit, and when he down right on the carpet.

in with no shoes, jeans, his T-shirt, and and so Bill starts down the aisle looking and he can't find a seat. By now, people no one says anything. Bill gets closer and realizes there are no seats, he just squats

By now the people are really uptight, and time, the minister realizes that from way at making his way toward Bill.

the tension in the air is thick. About this the back of the church, a deacon is slowly

Now the deacon is in his eighties, has silver-gray hair, and a three-piece suit. A godly man, very elegant, very dignified, very courtly. He walks with a cane and, as he starts walking toward this boy, everyone is saying to themselves that you can't blame him for what he's going to do. How can you expect a man of his age and of his background to understand some college kid on the floor?

It takes a long time for the man to reach the boy. The church is utterly silent except for the clicking of the man's cane. All eyes are focused on him. You can't even hear anyone breathing. The minister can't even preach the sermon until the deacon does what he has to do. And now they see this elderly man drop his cane on the floor. With great difficulty, he lowers himself and sits down next to Bill and worships with him so he won't be alone.

Everyone chokes up with emotion. When the minister gains control, he says, "What I'm about to preach, you will never remember. What you have just seen, you will never forget." "Be careful how you live. You may be the only Bible some people will ever read".

I asked the Lord to bless you as I prayed for you today. To guide you and protect you as you go along your way..... His love is always with you, His promises are true, and when we give Him all our cares, you know He will see us through.

Pass this to people you want God to Bless. I DID

The 'LITTLE' Things

As you might know, the head of a company survived

9/11 because his son started kindergarten.

Another fellow was alive because it was his turn to bring donuts.

One woman was late because her alarm clock didn't go off in time.

One was late because of being stuck on the NJ Turnpike
because of an auto accident.

One of them
missed his bus.

One spilled food on her clothes and had to take time to change.

One's
car wouldn't start.

One went back to answer the telephone.

One had a
child that dawdled.
and didn't get ready as soon as he should have.

One couldn't get a taxi.

The one that struck me was the man
who put on a new pair of shoes that morning, took the various means to get to work

but before he got there, he developed a blister on his foot.

He stopped at a drugstore to buy a band-aid.
That is why he is alive today.

Now when I am
stuck in traffic,
miss an elevator,
turn back to answer a ringing telephone ...
all the little things that annoy me,

I think to myself,
this is exactly where God wants me to be at this very moment..

Next time your morning seems to be going wrong, the children are slow getting dressed,
you can't seem to find the car keys,
you hit every traffic light,
don't get mad or frustrated;
God is at work watching over you.

May God continue to bless you with all those annoying little things and may you remember their possible purpose.

AMEN
